“STARCHASER”

AMBRA12001

2012

Ambra have been building a legendary discography piece by piece, reaching out to the world's best producers and vocalists, and satisfying the most discerning drum and bass devotees with their smooth and powerful sound.

The hard work has paid off, hours of expertise have been poured into this, the first vinyl release. Produced by Emery and Semi Sense, with heavyweight collaborations from MC Fats, Paradox, and shining local star Umiko, this is a landmark release for the label. Pay special attention.

A - Original mix:

Flowing through organic drumloops and piano riffs, floating brass and angelic vocals from the legendary MC Fats and rising Lithuanian star Umiko, this is a deep roller you'll play again and again. Infectious hooks and perfectly clean production make this an example of the highest quality drum and bass available.

AA - Paradox Remix:

Ambra's most respected mentor and inspiration, Paradox, has added his unique and meticulous drum-break sound to this, the latest release, "Starchaser". Tumbling from oldskool into the future, flipping between 1994 and 2014, the Paradox remix perfectly compliments the original and proves that Ambra is a force to be reckoned with.
